

2012 International Tennis Federation Seniors World Championships

From February 6th to 19th San Diego will be the host city for the ITF Seniors World Championships. The La Jolla Tennis Club is honored to be one of the seven venues chosen for this prestigious event. More than 600 players from 32 countries will be vying for the world championships in age categories 35-55. There will be both team competition and individual competition in this tournament.

The La Jolla Tennis Club will be hosting the Women's 45 (Margaret Court Cup) and the Men's 50 (Fred Perry Cup) in the team events.

Matches for the events will be scheduled on Courts 1-6 at the La Jolla Tennis Club Monday, February 6th through Wednesday, February 15th.

Practice sessions will begin at 8:00 and matches will be scheduled to start at 9:15.

The matches should be completed by 4:00 each day. (However, matches may go longer than expected) When the ITF matches are completed, the courts will be open to the La Jolla Tennis Club members on a first come, first serve basis.

Courts 7 and 8 will always be open to the members .

Court 9 is reserved for teaching, but will be open to the members when not reserved for teaching.

All adult clinics will continue as scheduled.

The Junior clinics will be suspended during the tournament, and will resume Monday, February 21st.

Court reservations will be suspended during the tournament and will resume on Thursday, February 16th.

Tournament matches are free and open to the public. If you are interested in being a volunteer and being a part of ITF Seniors World Championships, please contact
